Album Info

ENG.: 'Nano Life' is a result of my experiments with the mobile recordings made outside studio. All 13 tracks were created and recorded in road conditions (in the subway and electric trains, in cafe, during walks in park and on travel). For record only the mobile equipment which always can be put in a usual bag or in a backpack was used: Dell XPS M1210 laptop (13"), micro 25-keys MIDI controllers / keyboards Akai MPK Mini and Korg NanoKey. For record of some compositions the virtual keyboard and Piano Roll from DAW was used only.

Also I wanted to make these records in mobile programs. For this purpose I used portable music studio's NanoStudio and MuLab, and their internal synthesizers and tools. NO external tools! NO external VST! Only that tool kit which contain in NanoStudio and MuLab! Thus, the genre of this album can be characterized as Mobile Ambient or Portable Music. All records are made during 2010-2012.

I included some of these tracks in a concert mix of 'Nano Age Live 2011-08-14' (it is published on a network label of Ethereal Live), some tracks entered into promo EP 'Nano Age' (a label 45RPM-Records).

The considerable part of the tracks presented on this album is published for the first time. As two bonus tracks are included in an album.

All tracks are remastered in 2013.

I express special gratitude Drillobit aka Faktor4 (Austria) which has created surprising visual images to some tracks of an album.

RU.: Nano Life – результат нестудийных экспериментов с мобильной записью. Все 13 треков создавались и записывались в дорожных условиях (в вагонах метро и электричек, в кафе, во время прогулок в парке и в путешествиях), из оборудования для записи использовались исключительно мобильные приборы – ноутбук Dell XPS M1210 (13"), миниатюрные двухоктавные миди-контроллеры\клавиши Akai MPK Mini и Korg NanoKey (для записи некоторых композиций использовалась и вовсе виртуальная клавиатура или Piano Roll). В общем, то, что необременительно помещалось в обычный дорожный рюкзак.

Следуя идее мобильности, в качестве основной виртуальной среды для создания композиций были использованы portable music studio's NanoStudio и MuLab, а так же их внутренние синтезаторы и инструменты.

Таким образом, жанр этого альбома можно охарактеризовать как Mobile Ambient или Portable Music.

Все записи сделаны в период 2010–2012 гг.

Некоторые из этих треков я включил в концертный микс 'Nano Age Live 2011-08-14' (издан на сетевом лейбле Ethereal Live), несколько треков были включены в промо EP 'Nano Age' (лейбл 45RPM-Records). Большая часть представленных треков публикуется впервые.

Так же в альбом включены два бонус-трека.

Все треки ремастированы в 2013 г.

Выражаю особую признательность Drillobit aka Faktor4 (Австрия), создавшему удивительные визуальные образы к некоторым трэкам альбома.
